MERCI, MAESTRO !

1. Press Release

The 9th edition of our competition « Merci, Maestro! » will take place at the Piano's Maene's concert room, from April 9th to April 12th, 2025 and will end by a Gala concert on April 13th 2025 at the Gothic room of the City Hall of Brussels.

Organized by Nataliya Chepurenko, founder of the Brussels International Music Academy, « Merci Maestro! » welcomes international and Belgian pianists under 25 years old to participate. This event provides a platform for intercultural exchange, giving artistes the opportunity to be known in Europe and abroad.

“Merci, Maestro!” also provides a possibility to create a new space to share classical music during the competition, from April 9th to April 12th, 2025, and during the Gala Concert on April 13th, 2025.

For nine consecutive years, the international competition « Merci, Maestro! » gives an opportunity to young pianists to perform in front of a jury composed of world famous musicians. This event also provides chances for every talent to win prestigious prizes and, for some of them, to win opportunities to participate in other festivals or concerts.

The inscriptions, closed on the 1st of March, will give us a first glimpse of this edition. With a great international diversity, this competition attracts more and more candidates every year. After the pre-selections (via videos), around twenty candidates per category (under 10 years old, 11-13 years old, 14-16 years old, 17-19 years old, 20-22 years old and 23-25 years old) will be selected, coming from more than 20 different countries.

In 2025, the jury will meet under the presidency of the Belgo-Ukrainian pianist, Nataliya Chepurenko, artistic director and founder of the competition « Merci, Maestro! ».

Nataliya Chepurenko (Belgium /Ukraine), president of the jury, artistic director and founder of the competition « Merci, Maestro! ». Founder, director, piano teacher and chamber music teacher of the « Brussels International Music Academy » and of the festival « Music Academy Forte ».

Jean-Claude Vanden Eynden (Belgium), honorary professor at the Royal Conservatory of Brussels and Master in Residence at the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel.

Pietro Sellito (Italy), teacher at the Italian public school and director of chamber, choral and orchestral music, in Italy and abroad.

Lyudmyla Zakopets (Ukraine), professor of piano at the Lviv State Music Lyceum named after Solomiya Krushelnytska.

Michail Markov (Netherlands)

M. Markov is the founder and the artistic leader of the International Piano Competition for Young Musicians in Enschede, The Netherlands.

Tatiana Kozlova (Israel), professor of piano at the Israeli Conservatory of Music in Tel Aviv. Artistic director of “Stretto international piano competition” in Tel-Aviv.

Tamara Kordzadze (Switzerland), professor of piano at the Zurich Conservatory. President of Association “Unite Classics” and “Vivace”. Jury Member at international Competitions.

Milana Chernyavska (Germany), professor of piano at the University of Music and Performing Arts Graz (Austria).

Organized over 5 days, from April 9th to April 13th, 2025, this edition offers the musicians a look back at the work of J.S-Bach, Haydn, Beethoven, Mozart, and many others. The two rounds of the competition will take place in Piano’s Maene’s concert room, in Brussels, and they are open to the public.

The competition will end with a Gala Concert for all the winners. This Gala Concert will take place on April 13th, 2025, at the City Hall of Brussels.
